BEATBOX MEETS POPPING: AMIRAH SACKETT & MR MiC BRING ELECTRIFYING PERFORMANCE TO THE EISEMANN CENTER on APRIL 19th, 2025

Richardson, TX – The Eisemann Center for Performing Arts presents Beatbox Meets Popping, an electrifying fusion of hip-hop dance and beatboxing featuring internationally acclaimed dancer Amirah Sackett and beatbox sensation MR MiC. This must-see performance takes place on Saturday, April 19, 2025, at 8:00 PM in the Bank of America Theatre.

This high-energy, genre-defying performance seamlessly blends Sackett’s signature popping—an intricate and rhythmic street dance style—with MR MiC’s powerful and theatrical beatboxing. Through dynamic movement, live vocal percussion, and compelling storytelling, the duo explores themes of cultural identity, artistic expression, and the universal language of hip-hop. Audiences can expect mesmerizing synchronicity, breathtaking musicality, and a performance that pushes the boundaries of both dance and sound.

Amirah Sackett, a celebrated hip-hop dancer and choreographer, explores her Muslim American identity through movement, earning viral recognition with We’re Muslim, Don’t Panic. She has represented U.S. hip-hop culture worldwide as a TEDx speaker, Harvard guest lecturer, and cultural diplomat.

MR MiC, a Tunisian beatboxer and filmmaker, gained international fame for his viral beatboxing videos and has performed at The Kennedy Center and other prestigious venues. His dynamic collaborations and innovative sound have made him a leading force in the beatboxing world.

Together, Sackett and MR MiC create an unforgettable experience where rhythm and movement collide, showcasing the power of hip-hop as a global art form.
